

7th Annual GATJ Nengajō (New Year's Card) Contest 第七回 G A T J 年賀状コンテスト

2016 is the year of monkey. The Georgia Association of Teachers of Japanese invites K-12 students of Japanese to submit designs for its seventh-annual Nengajō contest.

Eligibility: The student must be enrolled at a school where at least one instructor is a member, of good standing, of GATJ. Only one entry is allowed per student.
Please keep the maximum number of cards per school to 10.

Winner's card designs will be uploaded onto GATJ's website and prominently displayed at the Consulate General of Japan. The winning artists will receive certificates and small gifts.

Nengajō Guidelines

Rules & Requirements

All Nengajō cards must:

- Be a hand-drawn original work of the student.
- contain the image of monkey and broadly reflect the New Year holiday spirit
- be a 4 inch by 6 inch unlined index card. Any card that does not meet the size will be disqualified from the contest.

All Nengajō cards must include at least one of the following items.

- New Year's greeting: 「明けましておめでとう」 「新年」 「謹賀新年」 「元旦」
- Year: 「二〇一六」 「2016」
- Kanji for monkey: 「猿」 or 「申」

- On the back of the card, please write
 - (1) Student's name
 - (2) Teacher's name
 - (3) School name and school address

※ Online submissions will be disqualified from the contest.

※ The cards will NOT be returned and will be kept with GATJ for the future reference.

Submissions

Please mail the cards to:

Nico Moorman
Milton High School
13025 Birmingham Hwy, Milton, GA 30004

Submissions deadline:

Postmarked on or before December 16, 2015